the port city in the scenic Blue Water area.

School and community leaders welcomed annexation of schools as big boost in area education.

Proud graduates mindful of class motto:

"Today we follow; Tomorrow we lead."

School Board welcomes administrative advice

Howard D Crull

Superintendent of Public Schools

Mr. Crull has served in the Port Huron System since 1941. His prime interest has always been that of promoting the best in instruction and facilities for all of the schools. He has been in the field of education for forty years.

Mr. Crull attended Coldwater High School, and holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Western Michigan. He also has his Master of Arts degree from the University of Michigan. In high school and college he was an outstanding athlete and was a coach during his first years of teaching.

Mr. Crull has been active in Civic as well as school organizations. He was the former president of the Michigan Association of School Administrators, the Michigan Schoolmasters' Club, and the Port Huron Rotary Club. He served on the Education Committee of the National Association of Manufacturers and is a past president of the St. Clair County Council of Social Agencies.

in formulating educational policies.

With the assistance of Mr. Crull, the Board of Education, has continued to study the curricula of the Port Huron Public Schools in order to assure the best possible program of instruction for each pupil enrolled. The curricula study accomplished last year proved to be very helpful and effective; a number of changes in this year's planning resulted from the various committee suggestions.

The Board considered the need of increased school facilities for an expanding membership.

Seated: Richard A. Cooley, President; Thornton S. Kunz, Vice-President. Standing: Wilbur

A. Norris, F. Bingham Fead, Mrs. Harlow Meno, Dr. Charles F. Kempf, and A.B. Carlisle.

High School Administrators and Staff appreciate

Colen J. Sommerville Principal

I wish to take this means to convey to all the staff members and students of Port Huron High School my sincere thanks and appreciation for a "year well spent." Without the cooperation, encouragement, and loyalty of all of you, I would not have been able to experience the profitable and satisfying year which I have had.

As our memories of success and failures, accomplishments and disappointments fade into the past, let us look forward to acquiring additional tools for the conquering of the future--our main tool, of course, being education. Life can bring us many happy surprises. Enter into it with faith, hope and optimism.

Colen J. Sommerville

high degree of Community Co-operation.

The new flags were displayed on the inaugural day of President John F. Kennedy. Students were given two hours from classes to watch the ceremony at home or on one of the six televisions placed in the school for the day.

As a yearly vocational guidance project of the Blue Water Management Association, panels of businessmen spoke to students in twelfth and tenth grade English and eleventh grade American History classes. Shown are Mr. Francis Merritt, Mr. James Oberhausen, and Mr. Frederick Kisbany who spoke to Miss Mallow's tenth grade English class.

College Night, organized by members of the National Honor Society, was acclaimed a huge success. Parents and students obtained further knowledge about the various Michigan colleges. Panel members from left to right: Dean James Browning, Port Huron Junior College; Mr. Gayle Wilson, University of Michigan; Miss Florence Wiese, Moderator; Mr. Donald Vass, Michigan State University; and Mr. Frank Bonta, Albion.

Counselors gave student

Miss Ellen Kean

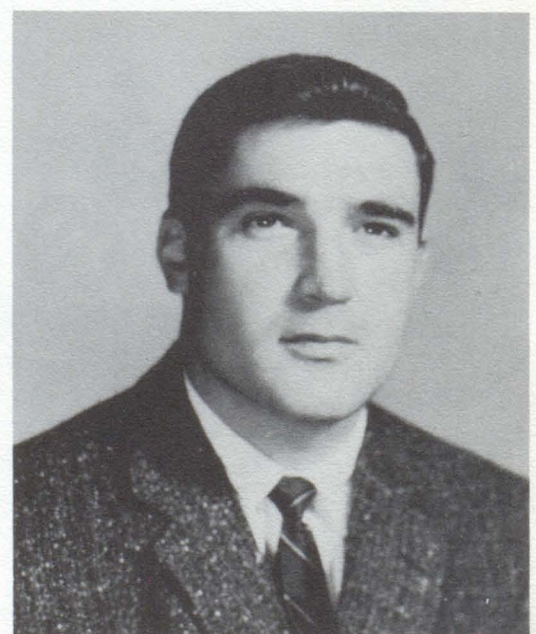

Miss Frances Moore

The Counselors' primary objective was to give assistance and direction to all the pupils. From results of special tests administered to the students by Miss Wiese, head of the guidance department, the counselors helped the students in planning their schedules for their future years in high school. References on careers were available for the students to read. The counselors assisted the students in helping them to understand themselves and their abilities.

Mr. Gaylord Feick

guidance and counsel.

Miss Wiese, assistant principal and head of the guidance department, had an extremely important job in the administration of school programming. Personnel records, attendance records, and the special testing program were among Miss Wiese's numerous duties. She also assisted the students in solving their social and academic problems.

Miss Wiese first taught school in Port Huron at the Washington Jr. High School. She came to the Port Huron High School in 1935 and taught American History, American Government, and Economics for two years. In 1937 she became a counselor, and in 1946 she became assistant principal.

Miss Florence Wiese

Mr. Ernest Gerke

Mr. Gerke, the new Dean of Students, assumed the responsibility of coping with various disciplinary measures and student problems. He was responsible for the school calendar which is an important item in a student's high school life.

Mr. Gerke began teaching at Port Huron High School in 1949 where he worked with students on the Co-op Program. He served as a counselor until 1960 when he was appointed Dean of Students.

From many homes into one big home

Students gathered in the cafeteria before school to make plans for the day and finish some homework.

After lunch students were found in the halls near the cafeteria talking with their friends.

On the way to homeroom, students stopped at their lockers to get books for their morning classes.

of knowledge and social activities .

Mighty Eugene Baumann held back students until the noon hour bell rang. Students were not allowed in classroom areas during the two lunch hours.

Before school and between classes the bookstore was available for purchase of school supplies. Barbara Whybrew sold bookcovers to Judith Hawes.

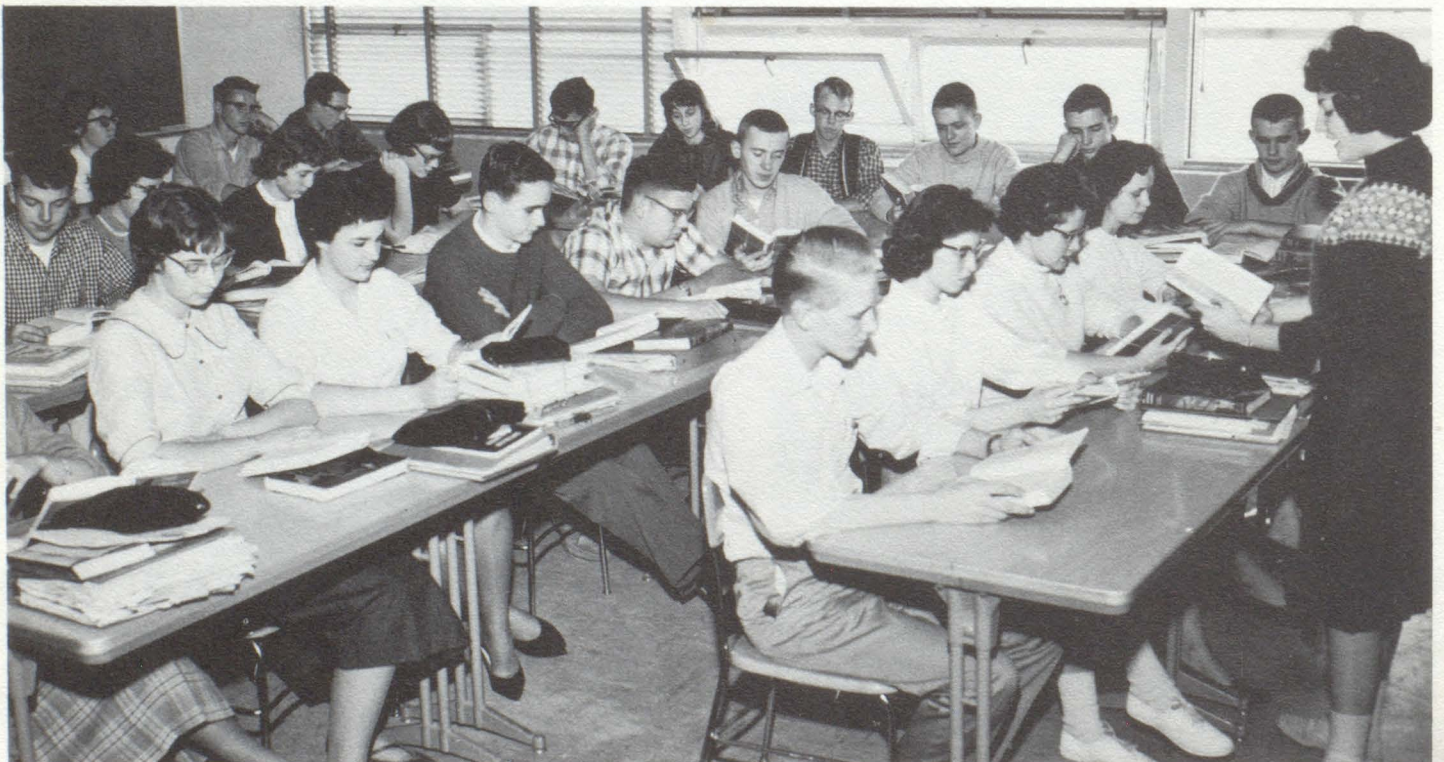

Rodger Radigan was one of the many students who came to school each morning on the bus.

Oral Communication is vital

Merrie Lynn Herrmann, Gary Crankshaw, Judith Van Luven, and Kenneth Smith were the chairmen of panel groups, each of which had read and discussed three poems by Emily Dickinson in Mrs. Houck's American Literature class. Each group presented the poems for class discussion.

In Miss MacLaren's American Literature class Jeanette Drescher read an excerpt from "The Scarlet Letter" by Nathaniel Hawthorne.

attentively as Melanie Cote gave a report on the War of 1812.

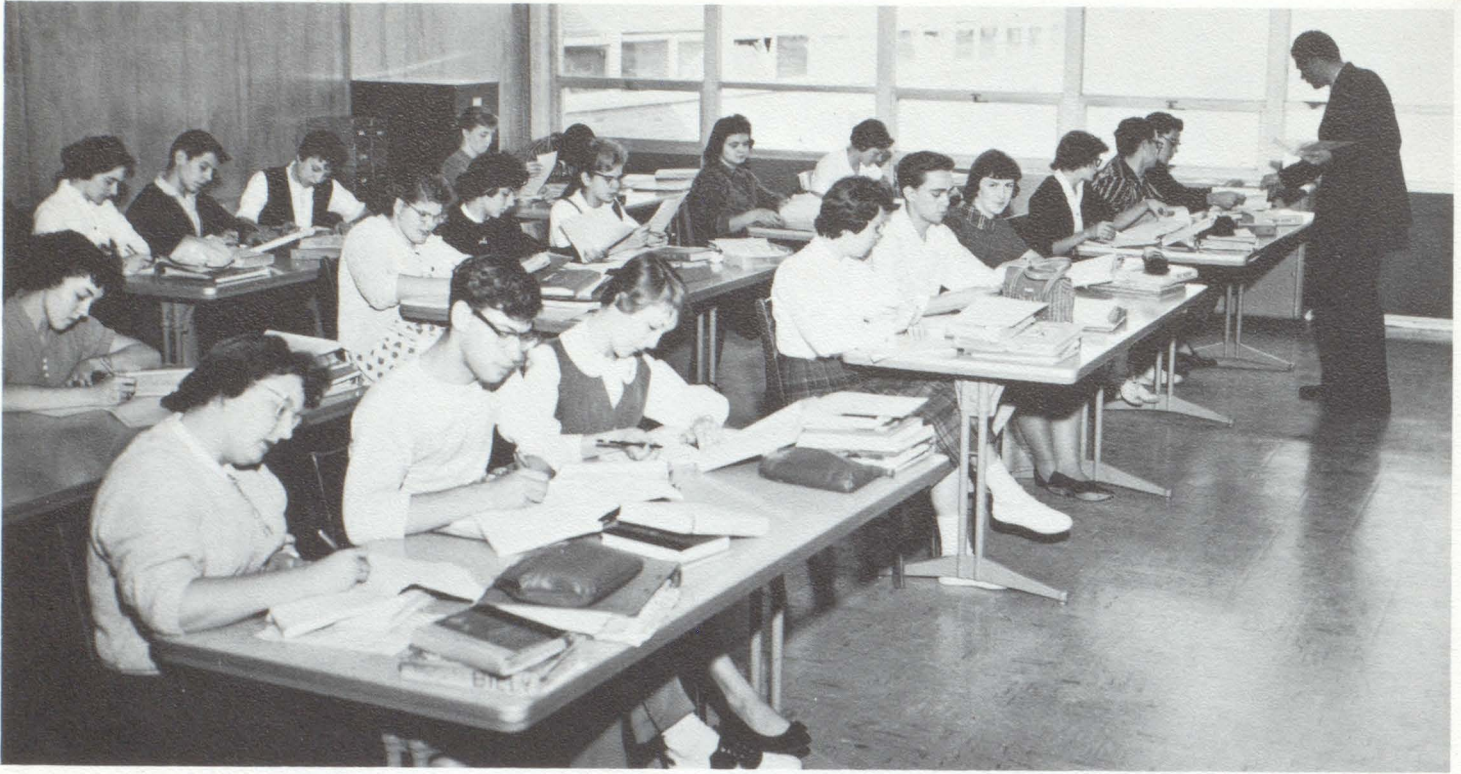

Alfred Herpel gave a current event report in Mr. Hayes' American history.

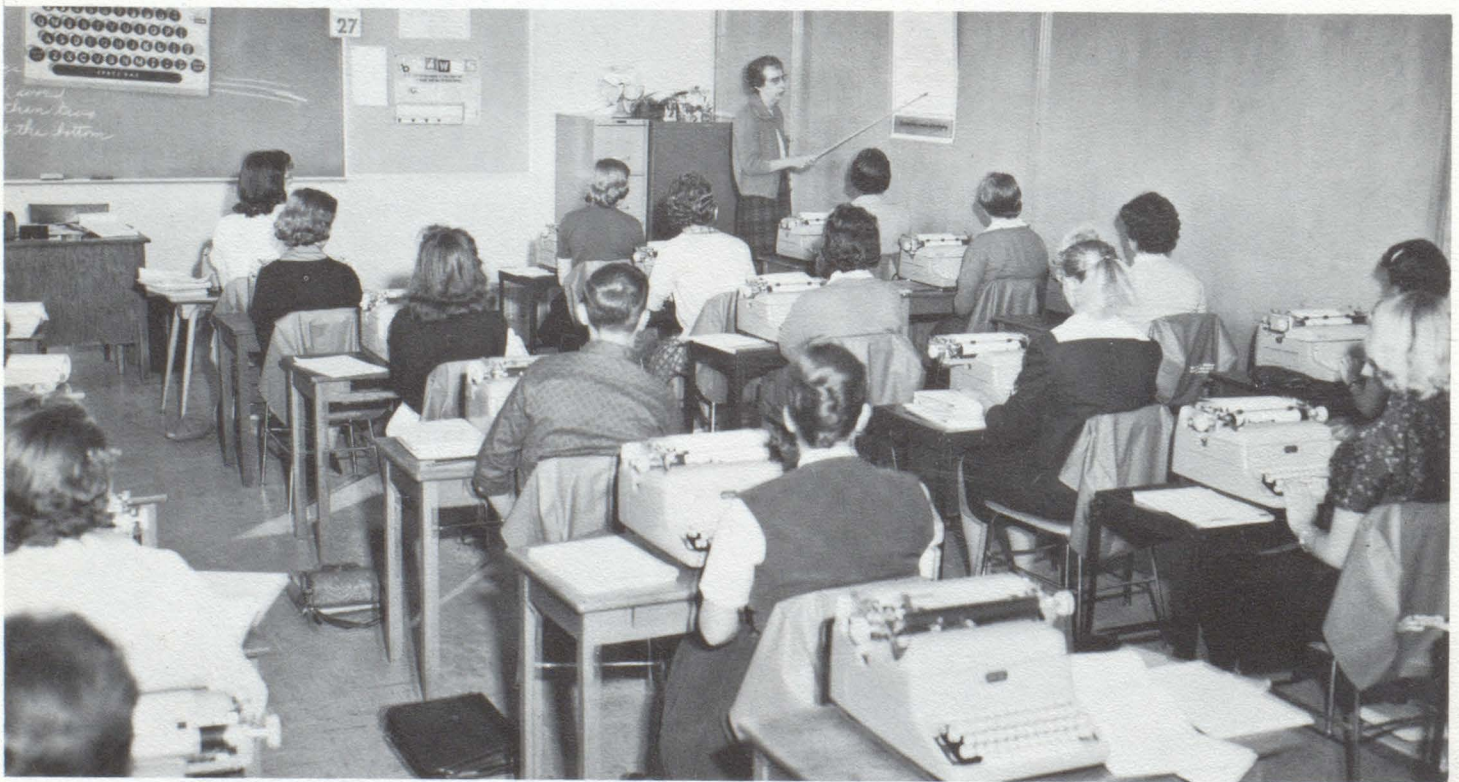

Richard Heering showed the extent of the Roman Empire to Miss Rush's world history group.

Proficiency in basic Business Education skills

Mr. Morehead's third hour bookkeeping class was introduced to the use of special journals. He pointed out to Charles Clark the association of the Journal to the ledgers.

Miss Ruthe pointed out to her first hour advanced typing class the special features on the second page of a two-page letter. The students received advanced training on electric typewriters as well as on the manual.

are requisites for entering the business world.

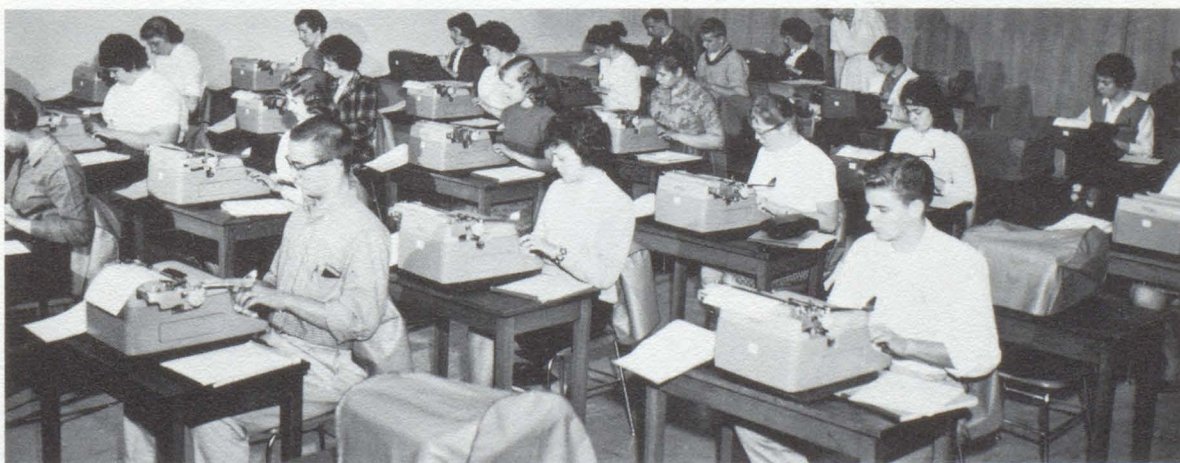

Beginning shorthand students learned to read shorthand by the two-finger method before they were introduced to writing with speed and accuracy. Their goal for the year was to write shorthand for five minutes at sixty words or more a minute.

The girls in the office machines courses, taught by Miss Jones, finished their daily assignments on the manual rotary calculators, transcription machines, posting machines, and full-key adding machines. During the year they also became acquainted with the duplicating machines, the ditto, and the mimeograph.

After Miss Frankhauser's typing I students acquired moderate speed and accuracy, the students were introduced to the business letter. Prospective office workers, as well as students for personal-use typing, enrolled in this course.

Industrial Arts prepare boys to enter

Kurt Gorbutt, Rick McLane, Edward Smerer, and James Renno set up a piece of metal to be machined to the correct size in the shaper as Mr. Gressman looked on.

Thomas Barrett, who played the fiery role of Teddy "Roosevelt" Brewster, seemed to be thinking of something else, while officers Kline and Brophy, played by Charles Wilson and Alan Wilks, are greeted by Judith Tikkanen, as Abby Brewster, and Patricia Sweet, as Martha Brewster.

Christine Meakin, as Elaine, and John "Skip" Kelley, as Mortimer, argued while Jonathan, John Schomaker, was tempted to strike. Elaine and Mortimer provided the love interest and seemed to be the only sane ones in the play.

Honors and Awards

These Juniors met in the Student Lounge to discuss the Merit Scholarship Test: Alan Heath, Harvey Almoe, Daniel Loveland, Sandra Lotridge, Lola Lauridson, Reinhold Hellmann, and Ronald DeMerritt.

Beth Dowell wins D A R award

Every year it has been customary for the Seniors and the Faculty to select a girl to represent Port Huron High School as the "Daughters of the American Revolution" good citizen. The Seniors voted for three girls in their class whom they felt possessed the qualities of leadership and dependability. From the top three, the faculty elected Beth Dowell.

Honors and Awards

These Seniors talked about the difficulty of the Math Test after they had completed it---Susan Simpson, Jeanette Drescher, John Schomaker, Tom Redmond, Brenda Wilson, and Herbert Gray.

The Honor Society chose capable officers to lead their club—Roger Jeanson, President; Nancy Hauk, Vice-President; Susan Simpson, Secretary; and Lydia Powell, Treasurer.

Honors and Awards

These students ranked high in the National Merit Scholarship Examination taken last year: Gerald Phipps, Allen Stevens, Brenda Wilson, who took top honors; Dale Lewis and John Chidester.

NANCY LONDON, BETTY CROCKER

HOMEMAKER OF TOMORROW

Nancy London won a pin and received an achievement award for getting the highest score on the written examination in the Betty Crocker Homemaking Contest. If Nancy's test rates the highest in the state, she will receive a $1,500 scholarship.

The Future Nurses' club participated in many projects this year , Among these activities was a volunteer service project which consisted of feeding the patients at various hospitals. They also have had speakers at their meetings who told them of the many nursing schools and programs. Another of their projects was sponsoring a dance which followed a basketball game.

The purposes of the Future Teachers' Club are to interest good students in becoming teachers, to explore the teaching field including the opportunities and the many areas of the teaching profession, and to provide an opportunity to work with children.

The Future Teachers' Club became affiliated with the National group, The Future Teachers of America.

Members spent half a day each month observing an elementary class in action. Various parties provided members with fun and fellowship.

Port Huron High School's chapter of Mu Alpha Theta, the National High School and Junior College Mathematics Club, received its charter in 1957. It is an honorary club for students who excel in math. Students must maintain a "B" average in all subjects and "B plus" in math. They are initiated in the second semester of their junior year.

Throughout the year the club members worked out various programs to present at the monthly meetings. Speakers were often invited. Miss Catherine Meehan is the club's sponsor.

Debate Team

A Port Huron Debate Team was organized this year by Mr. Vadnais, a new teacher at Port Huron High School. This group studied the principles of public speaking and of formal organized debate. The proposition for debate was: Resolved: That the United Nations should be significantly strengthened. This was the topic which was used during the year.

Sitting: John Crist, Mary Lynn Arthur, and Linda Adams. Standing: Mr. Robert Vadnais, Sponsor; and James Crist.

Students volunteered for extra duties.

Frederick Thornton and John Lapis checked James Kennedy's pass. The job of the hall monitors was to keep order and prevent students from roaming the halls.

Karen Edie and Joel "Stephen" Ellingboe admired one of the many Senior bulletin boards. Each month Senior homerooms arranged different displays.

Heinrich Hellmann and James Crist mixed solutions for chemistry experiments. Heinrich, now a laboratory assistant, and James, a future assistant, aided Mr. James Foley.

Colorful floats and cars made

The Seniors wanted a victory! The float was red and white with a Senior saluting it. This striking float won second prize. The Juniors' float was first prize winner. It was multi-colored with the theme, "An Eagle Feather (Ferndale) In Our Cap."

The lovely queen, Sandra Shover, was crowned at haltime. Mr. Sommerville, the school principal, placed the royal cape on her.

The Sophomore Class received third prize. The theme of their float was "Blast the Eagles."

homecoming parade the best ever!

First prize winner of the organizations float was the newly formed Diners Club. Making last-minute preparations were Charles Nicholson, Anne Hastings, and Roger Jeanson. The theme was the "Rats of Tobruk," Port Huron's Football Team, devouring the Cheesecake Champion, Ferndale.

Recovering from a fumble, John Lapish, Number 27, battered his way to a touchdown while many of Ferndale's players were determined to stop him; also shown is John Dohn, Number 56.

Student Council worked Pep Committee

The pep committee promoted school spirit by drawing posters and scheduling buses for away games. They succeeded in obtaining a foreign exchange student from Germany for next fall. Janet Warren, Judith Postill, Chairman Karen Armstrong, Floyd Krauss, and Carole Stevenson served on this committee.

The first semester Student Council Officers led many of the school activities—Peggy McKinnon, Recording Secretary; Barbara Fair, Corresponding Secretary;

Party Committee

The party committee was in charge of the homecoming dance and the annual Teachers' Christmas Tea—Thomas Gaffney, Barbara Wirsing, Suzanne Green, Chairman Janice Carter, Raymond Marsh, and Dan Kiefer.

The second semester Student Council brought closer relations between the students, faculty, and administration—Janice Carter, Recording Secretary; Barbara Fair, Corresponding Secretary; Susan in committees to get best results.

Assembly Committee

Beth Dowell, Vice-President; Advisor Miss Marjorie Muhlitner, John Chidester, President; John Schomaker, Treasurer; and David Carr, Parliamentarian.

The assembly committee saw that all the assemblies were planned and carried out efficiently—Nancy London, Joan Dangremond, Kay Sharrard, Judith Peyton, Mary Down, Sandra Keller, Judith Tikkanen, Chairman; Jack Redmond, and Betty Jo Walsh.

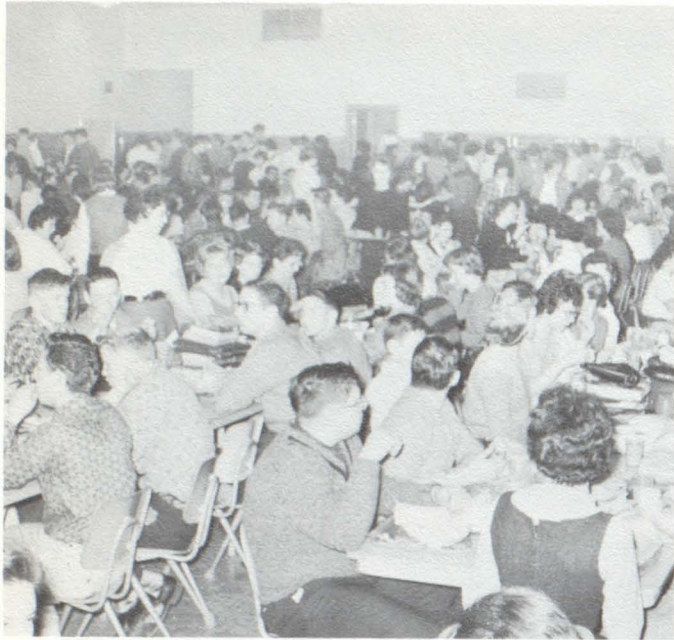

Simpson, Vice-President; Advisor Miss Majorie Muhlitner, Paul Smith, President; John Schomaker, Treasurer; and Ritchie Hall, Parliamentarian.

Menu Committee

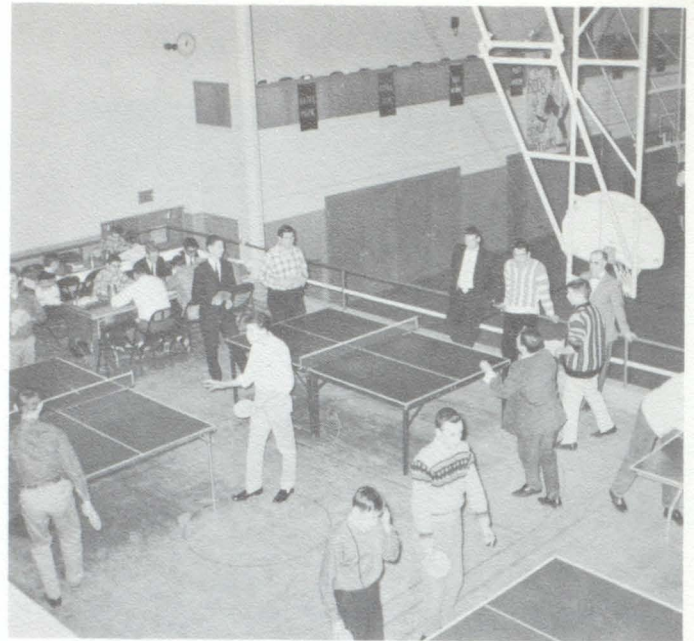

The menu committee posted the coming Week's menus outside the cafeteria. They also took charge of the homecoming parade and the Christmas tree decorations—Dorothy Stein, Christopher Benedict, and Irma Robbins, Chairman.

Noon hour activities

Each noon hour the cafeteria was filled with students enjoying their lunches. Balanced meals, ice cream, and potato chips were served to both the faculty and the student body.

After everyone finished eating, the choice of either studying or challenging their classmates to a game could be made. The gym was open every noon for basketball, ping pong, chess, or checkers.

Among the activities of the Diners' Club were eating lunch together, participating in homecoming, promoting school spirit, and planning group outings —TOP ROW: Sanford, Henry, John Chidester, John Dohn, Robert Shurkey, Charles Nicholson, John

Government Officials and Students Meet Senior Government Day

J. Harland Patterson volunteered to answer a question asked by one of the students. This was an interesting part of the program and gave both students and guests an opportunity to present their opinions. The students were dismissed for lunch. After, they attended special group meetings.

Mary Gray and David Reynolds received their programs from Anne Hastings and Sylvia Hancock. Students had the choice of sitting in the balcony or on the main floor of McMorran Auditorium.

This was the Law Enforcement group. Standing: Barbara Breckon, Chairman; Linda Garrow, Secretary; and Howard Johnson, Under Sherriff. Seated: Corporal Reed Harris, Michigan State Police; Richard Schonk, Prosecuting Attorney; Earle Roberts from M.S.U.; and Gerald Toles, District detective.

Co-operation, salesmanship, and enthusiasm

The top boy salesman, Thomas Barrett, and top girl salesman, Nancy Hauk, won trophies signifying their outstanding achievement.

Roberta Lincoln, a sophomore sold to one of the "mystery" persons, and had her choice of a watch, a radio, a stereophonic record player, or a movie camera.

Ezra Bridge was one of the many who received cash prizes for selling several magazines.

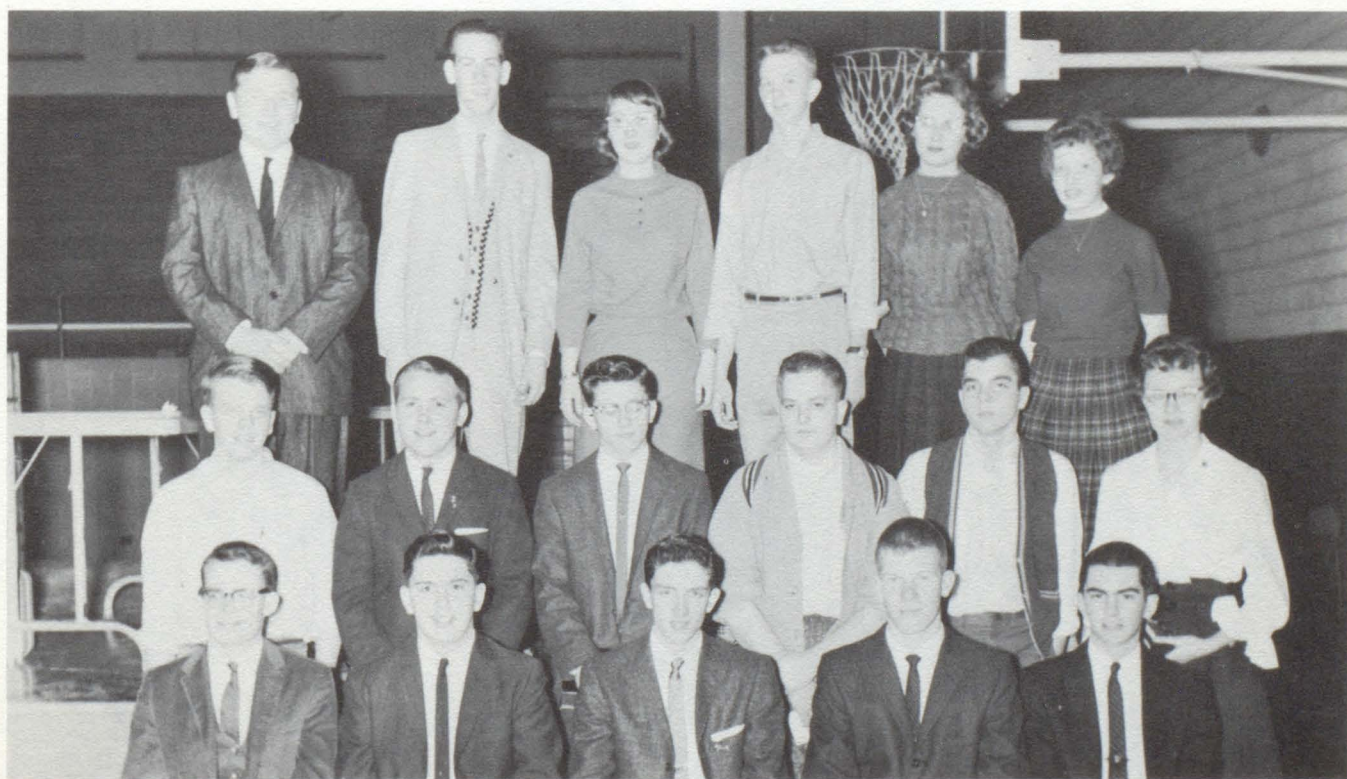

David Sickles, a senior, was the lucky winner of the treasure chest money. Drawing a name and adding five dollars each day finally ended with David's winning $35.

the magazine sale a success!

Fredric Laughlin, Miss Catherine Meehan, Mr. Linford Bond, and Thomas Barrett were top winners of the magazine sale. Miss Meehan's homeroom came in first and had 100 per cent participation. Her homeroom high salesman, Fredric Laughlin, was second high salesman of the school. Mr. Bond's homeroom came in second. His homeroom high salesman was Thomas Barrett, who also was the school's high salesman.

The "Student" staff gives

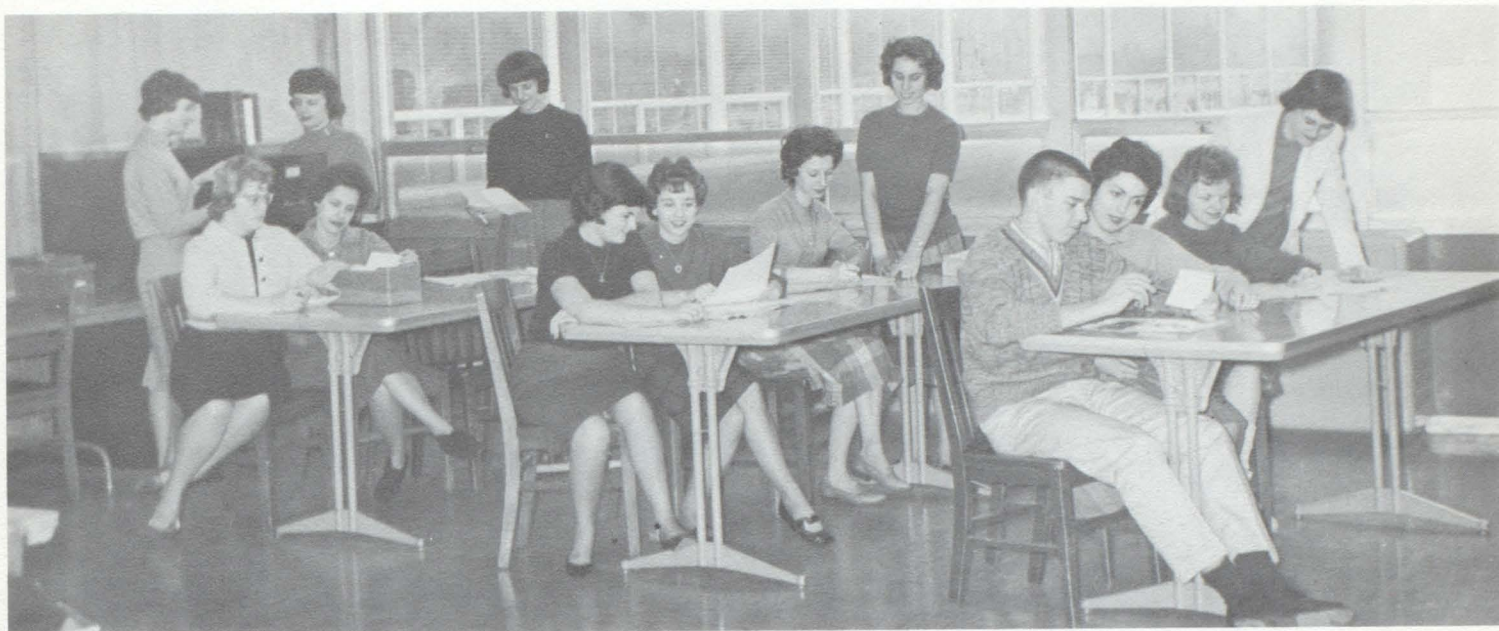

Patricia Hazledine, Index Editor, filed names alphabetically which appeared in the index. Barbara Draper, Yearbook Editor, kept the "dummy" up to date by frequently checking it with the finished pages. Mrs. Rantanen discussed the advertisement section with Patricia Howe, Business Manager, and Janet Gurgel, her assistant. The local professional and businessmen have always co-operated with the staff in the financing of the yearbook.

Mary Jo Jahr had charge of the Faculty Section. She also supervised the sale and distribution of the yearbooks. Anne Hastings, Special Activities Editor, and Pamela Schuler worked on copy for the Clubs' section.

The yearbook staff planned the theme, color, and design of the yearbook. The staff carried the design and theme throughout the pages of the book—FRONT TABLE: Patrick Loeprich, Barbara Draper, Ellen Anderson, and Dona Kerr. SECOND

Ellen Anderson worked with the photographer and faculty in planning the classroom pictures to be taken. Patrick Loeprich, Boys' Sports Editor, identified the athletes in the group pictures for his section. Dona Kerr looked at pictures and read over her copy for the Girls' Sports Section. Linda McKenzie, Underclassmen Editor, arranged layouts and wrote copy.

The prize-winning school paper--

The reporters, photographer, and copy reader worked together to complete their assignments: Karen Kuhn, Mary Ann Reckker, Margaret Thornley, Carol Strang, Judith Rote, Cheryl Davis, Nancy Slater, Copy Reader; Stewart Israel, Photographer; Leslie Spencer, and Robert Miller.

Some time before Act I opens, Ralph has fallen in love with Josephine, the daughter of his commanding officer, Captain Corcoran. Likewise, Little Buttercup, a buxom peddler-woman, has fallen in love with the Captain himself. When Act I opens, the sailors are merrily preparing the ship for Sir Joseph's inspection. The generally happy atmosphere on deck is marred only by Little Buttercup's hints of a dark secret she is hiding, by the misanthropic grumbling of Dick Deadeye, and by the love-lorn complaints of Ralph and Josephine. Sir Joseph appears attended by a train of ladies. Josephine finds him insufferable; and, when Ralph again pleads his suit and finally threatens suicide, she agrees to elope. Act II opens with the Captain in despair at the demoralization of his crew and the coldness of his daughter towards Sir Joseph. Little Buttercup tries to comfort him, and prophesies a change in store. But Sir Joseph soon appears and tells the Captain that Josephine has thoroughly discouraged him in his suit; he wishes to call the match off. Meanwhile, Dick Deadeye has made his way to the Captain and informs him of the elopement plans. When Sir Joseph learns that Josephine was planning to run away to get married, he orders that Ralph be put in irons. Little Buttercup now comes out with her secret, which solves the whole difficulty: she confesses she had charge of nursing and bringing up Ralph and the Captain when they were babies. She got them mixed up and the one now the Captain should be Ralph, and vice versa. The sudden reversal in the social status of Ralph and the Corcorans removes Sir Joseph as a suitor for Josephine's hand. It permits her to marry Ralph, and her father to marry Buttercup. Sir Joseph resigns himself to marrying his cousin, Hebe.

Cecil "Brick" Fowler

This year, as in every year, the coaches of the individual sports have given their all to produce a winning team. In some cases their hard work has been in vain, but all in all the 1960-61 athletic events have made Port Huron a greater school.

Port Huron High School has one of the most evenly balanced coaching staffs in the E.M.L. With this advantage, Port Huron is always a threatening contender in all seasonal sports. The student body is proud of and sincerely appreciates the fine PHHS coaching staff.

Seventh hour leaders, Arlene Schoeder, Barbara Guba, Nancy Paul, Marlene Monzo, Rosemary Cline, and Sharon Pudney, sat in front of their squads waiting for further directions from Miss Clark. Photos (Bottom) by Stewart Israel

After attendance was taken, the leaders took their squads to teach them different basketball techniques.

Kendyl Kammer, Mrs. Kammer, Mrs. Cornelius, and Karen Cornelius enjoyed skipping rope at Mom's Night.

After many different activities at Dad's Night, the girls and their fathers took time out for refreshments. Lola Lauridsen poured pop for Mr. Paul, Barbara Lasher, and Joanna Montney.

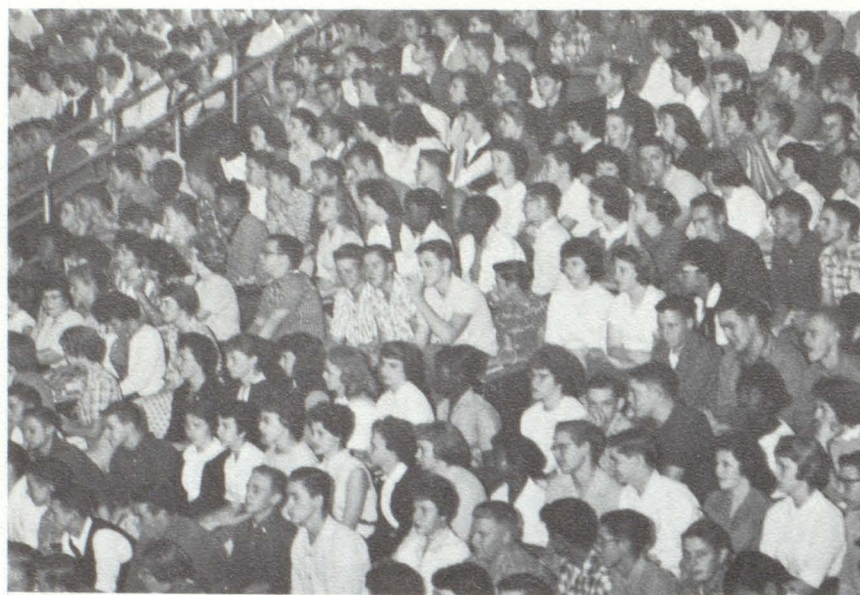

Underclassmen

Sophomores

PHHS was new and strange to the class of '63 as they enjoyed their first assembly.

Sophomores

Students often studied in the Student Lounge during their lunch hours.

One of the successful dances of the year was the Twirp Dance, sponsored by the Sophomores.

Friday was here at last, and everyone was glad to unload their books and worries for a while.

These Sophomores were busy talking over plans for the play, "Henry VII," which they will see in Stratford next fall.

Junior Steering Committee

Robert Johnson, Carol Cousins, Robert Hoffman, and Christine Clendenney paused for a moment to admire one of the many clever Senior bulletin boards.

The Mansion Committee, one of the J-Hop decoration committees, met to discuss progress made and to make future plans.

The last part of seventh hour, cheerleaders, majorettes, and the band lead the students through the halls to a pep assembly.

The time was 3:38, and those who rode the South Park-Lapeer bus make a mad dash for a seat.

Memories

Spring was on its way; the snow was beginning to melt; everyone knew that in just a few months, vacation time would be here.

Seniors

The Student Council Election Assembly was a scene of many posters and enthusiastic students.

Thomas Barrett won the trophy for the high boy salesman of the Magazine Sale.

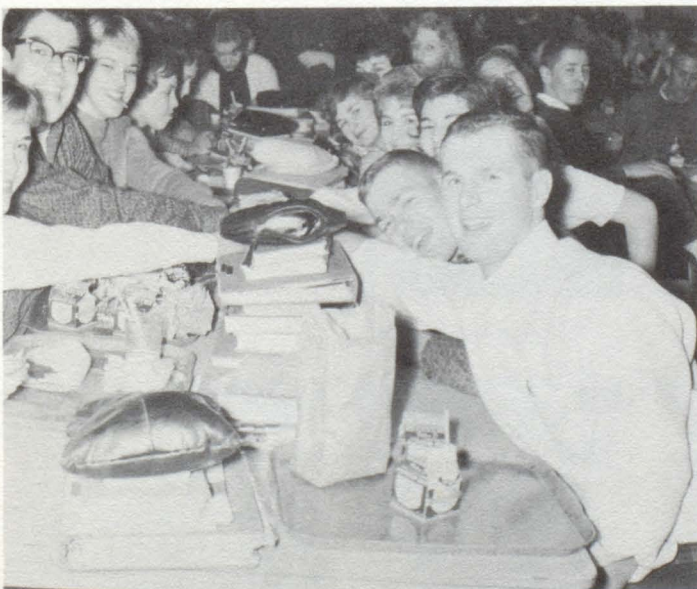

Wayne Moss watched while Elaine Goldman painted the thermometer to show that part of the quota for the Magazine Sale was reached.

Seniors listened attentively to the many speakers at the Government Day morning meeting. Later in the afternoon, after everyone had participated in a special group meeting, they returned once more for a final summary of the day.

Everyone seemed to want part of Charles Nicholson's lunch.

The make-up committee applied an extra touch of make-up to the members of the cast in the senior play "Arsenic and Old Lace."

Port Huron High School held its annual Open House last fall in November. Parents of all students were invited to meet the teachers of their sons or daughters; they followed the daily schedule of the student. Each teacher explained what was being taught in his subject and what was expected of the student.

Teachers worked with students on all class projects during the year. Seated are the J-Hop advisors: Mrs. Brown, Mr. Nault, and Miss Mallow. Standing are the Decoration Committee Chairmen for the J-Hop: James Crist, Lola Lauridsen, Barbara Wirsing, and Nancy Peutrell.

The advisors for the three classes were: Miss Laura Moore, Seniors; Mr. Wallace

Nault, Juniors; and Mr. Harry Anderle, Sophomores.

Mrs. Marian Houck, Miss Isabel MacLaren, chairman; Miss Marilyn Mallow, Mr. Homer Sims and Mr. John Whitehouse met after school for one of their regular English department meetings.

Mr. Robert Joyner placed his attendance card on the door to be picked up by an office runner.

Port Authorities found that the port, in one year, surpassed its expectations. It was found necessary to purchase additional frontage to expand present facilities.

Marie McNaughton, Ronald Davey, Raymond Marsh, Janet Gurgel, Mark Ogden, and Robert Odle waited their turn at the voting machine to make their choice of national, state, and local candidates. "Robbie" Odle burst into tears whenever someone said he was going to "be emphatic by voting straight Democratic."

EASTERN MICHIGAN COLLEGE OF COMMERCE offers graduates of Port Huron and vicinity an opportunity to complete an approved business course ranging from 9 to 20 months without leaving the community. Graduates who have started commercial courses in high school may complete such courses in less than the scheduled period of time. Because of its proximity to the Blue Water district, courses may be completed without the expense of board and room away from home.

THE STAFF AND ADMINISTRATION of the College join in wishing the graduates of Port Huron High the best of everything, and cordially invite them to join its student body if the best of business education is desired.
